

ABOUT US

W. Scott Smith

Scott is a longtime resident, Educator and REALTOR in Beavercreek and surrounding municipalities. He retired in 1994 from Beavercreek Schools after a successful, 30-year music educator career. He and his wife, Jan Smith (Britt), are presently pursuing their career with Beavercreek's RE/MAX Victory at The Greene office. Scott's real estate career began in 1978 and has continued to this day. - "I really enjoy working with parents of past students. Not only am I helping them with their real estate needs but also I'm getting caught-up with their children's accomplishments. I've even helped a number of former students purchase their first home." "I take particular pride in helping incoming military personal get established in their new community."

Scott is the father of two children and stepfather to three stepchildren. In addition, he is "grandfather" to 10 grandchildren and great-grandfather to 5 great-grandchildren. Scott is a native of Cleveland Ohio, graduating from Lakewood High School, Class of 1958) and receiving a Bachelor degree from The Ohio State University (Class of 1963). While at OSU, Scott was ranked first in the nation in rebound tumbling. He lettered both in Gymnastics and springboard Diving. He began his teaching career at Beavercreek schools in 1964. There he coached both men and woman high school gymnastics teams for eight years. At the same time he assisted for ten years as second in command of the Beavercreek High School instrumental music department. -"I'm very enthusiastic about real estate and I am looking forward to hearing from past students and parents of past students who have real need of the services that I offer".

Jan Smith

Jan Smith is a longtime resident, former school employee. Jan's real estate career began in 1985 and has continued to this day. Presently she her licenses with Beavercreek's RE/MAX Victory at The Greene office. She retired from Beavercreek Schools after a successful 20-year career. She and her husband, Scott work as a team when listing homes for sale or showing homes to perspective buyers. Jan has earned many sales awards and is held in high regard in the profession. -- "I really enjoy working with people. Not only am I helping them with one of their biggest investment decisions but also I'm making many new friends".

Jan is the mother of three children and two stepchildren. Altogether she is grandmother to 10 grandchildren and great-grandmother to 5 great-grandchildren. She is a native of Glasgow, Kentucky and has lived in Ohio most of her adult life.